

Paint, Pasta and Philanthropy

Wednesday, March 23, 2016

Starting at 5:00 PM to completion

i Ricchi invites you to break away from the typical night out with a potent cocktail of creativity & social connection.

Shawn Michael Perkins, A.K.A. "Perkasso" will paint a cherry blossom adorned Washington landscape in the restaurant, in front of your eyes.

Have a cocktail or glass of wine – stay for a pasta dinner. Watch and interact with Shawn as he creates a work of art to be auctioned to the highest bidder.

Proceeds of the auction will go to a charity of the bidder's choice as well as to support the National Cherry Blossom Festival.
